

We are profit-ready!

When it comes to looking for a community to start or expand your business, Terre Haute, Indiana, U.S.A. offers you more, faster than most other communities.

Located in West Central Indiana along the Wabash River, we are within 500 miles of half the population of the United States. We are only three hours from five major Midwest cities via I-70/U.S. 41, rail and our modern airport.

We are a community of skilled workers, five institutions of higher education and very affordable housing. Our city and county governments work together with state and federal government to make sure you will have a profitable experience.

- Two fully developed industrial parks with over 1500 acres.
- Tax increment incentives
- No inventory tax
- Competitive wage rates
- The historic crossroads of America (I-70/U.S. 41)
- Highly educated and skilled workforce
